

The Returning Soldier

Thursday 6th September 2018, MMU Council Chamber, Ormond Building, Manchester Metropolitan University

If you would like to attend, please email K.Hurlock@mmu.ac.uk

10.30 Registration, Tea & Coffee

Welcome: Kathryn Hurlock and Mercedes Peñalba-Sotorrio

10.45-11.45 Session One: Chair, Emma Liggins

Moral Injury, Criticism of Crusading and Returning Crusaders
Kathryn Hurlock, Manchester Metropolitan University

Conflict, Welfare and Memory during and after the British Civil Wars, 1642-1710
Andrew Hopper, University of Leicester

11.45-12.00 Comfort Break

12.00-1.00 Session Two: Chair, Kathryn Hurlock

The Justicier: the military officer in eighteenth-century domestic tragedy
Karen Lacey, Birkbeck College, University of London

Judging heroes: magistrates' approaches to wife battery, military service and marital duty in English Police Courts in the shadow of the First World War.
Rebecca Crites, Warwick University

1.00-2.00 Lunch

2.00-3.30 Session Three: Chair, Mercedes Peñalba-Sotorrio

'Rest you, charger, rust you, bridle': Animals from the Wars Returning?
Gervase Phillips, Manchester Metropolitan University

Who Dares Wins: veteran SAS on contemporary television'
Nicola Bishop, Manchester Metropolitan University

Disabled War Veterans in Tito's Yugoslavia, 1945-1961
John Paul Newman, National University of Ireland, Maynooth

3.30-4.00 Tea & Coffee

4.00-5.00 Round Table Discussion: The Returning Soldier

6.00 Dinner

